Contents

1 Scope of the Document

The Grant Agreement for NewHoRRIzon (741402) outlines that "[a]ll partners will contribute (by drafting, writing, and/or commenting) to scientific publications (original articles, letters to the editors, research news, or comments) in high-profile journals that show the relevance of RRI for different disciplines to raise awareness for RRI. IHS will support publication activities, draw up, and administer a publication plan".

This Deliverable provides information about the efforts taken by the NewHoRRIzon consortium to disseminate project results in publications and presentations to different audiences in various settings (conferences, workshops, etc.).

2 Overview on scientific NewHoRRIzon publications

This section will provide an overview on scientific publications emerging from NewHoRRIzon project. This includes publications such as conference papers, research papers, books, book chapters, commentaries and journal papers.
